I want to welcome you to the Faith Skincare message boards! As a company, Faith Skincare not only promotes healing in our physical bodies, but also healing down to the core of the inner self. I believe that we are made up of three main parts: Body, Soul and Spirit.

In order to fully receive physical healing, we cannot ignore the inner healing of our minds, emotions, will, and spirit. We have created this message board to allow us to dialog all of these issues. I hope that you enjoy it!
